

SARAH CASEY

Flutist

SHORT BIO

Sarah Casey is a freelance flutist and flute teacher in Baltimore. She has a studio of students from ages 7 to 70. Her primary teachers include Diana Morgan, Beth Plunk, Dr. Beth Chandler Cahill, and Alison Sincoff with additional studies with Janet Arms.

EDUCATION

Master of Music in Flute Performance

Ohio University
2014-2016

Bachelor of Music in Flute Performance

James Madison University
2010 – 2014

VOLUNTEERING

Sectional Coach

Howard County Public School System

Sarah has helped run sectionals for elementary school bands, middle school bands, high school marching bands, and summer band camps.

Flute Society of Washington

Guest Artist Masterclass Competition Coordinator

For two years, Sarah has coordinated the guest artist masterclass for the FSW's annual convention.

Fute Teacher

Warrior Music Foundation

Warrior Music Foundation provides music lessons and music therapy for veterans, active duty military and their families. Sarah taught lessons to the wife of an Army Veteran for two years.

STUDENT ACHIEVEMENTS

Flute Society of Washington

Students selected as finalists for Honors Competition (finalists, 3 times, winners 2 times)

Baltimore Symphony High School Student Soloist Competition

Winner, and student performed a concerto with Baltimore Symphony Orchestra (1 time)

Maryland All State High School Band

Students chosen to participate (3 times)

Maryland All State Middle School Band

Students chosen to participate (4 times)

Howard County GT Middle School Band

Students auditioned and were selected to participate in a weekend intensive culminating in a performance (8 times)

Howard County GT Elementary School Band

Students auditioned and were selected to participate in a weekend intensive culminating in a performance (6 times)

Howard County Elementary School Honor Band

Students who auditioned for all band and were not selected were selected to participate in honor band, which included rehearsals spanning over several months culminating in a performance (2 times)